We have already confirmed 'reserves' with most growers although these quantities will be finalised following my tastings in March/April this year. There is great enthusiasm flowing for this marvellous vintage already with British wine merchants and writers applauding the quality of both red and white 2006 Burgundies.

Our usual, complete, vintage assessment and personal tasting notes will be presented in the normal manner following my return in April.

That's not a bad start as further Champagne offers will follow!
